Members of the TIPS project at the Congress in Krakow

Our partners, Jasmina Troshanska, from Blue Firefly, and María Juez, from Autismo Burgos, met at the European congress of Autism in Poland. They could attend the sessions, presentations and workshops and learn about the latest research in autism.

TIPS in the Erasmus Day

In Spain, our colleague Marta González, from Autismo Burgos, recorded a video in which she explained both the TIPS project and her personal experience within it. The video was created to commemorate the Erasmus Days (13th, 14th and 15th October). These days are dedicated to learn about the Erasmus+ Program and to talk with the alumni of the program who will be happy to share their experiences.

In this congress we presented another poster presenting our project and attended the talks developed during the congress. Marta was able to establish contacts with people related to autism from all over Spain and share their projects and experiences.

TIPS National surveys

The objective of the TIPS project is to develop and test an educational platform containing interactive educational material to support parents and relatives of children with autism. It developed two short questionnaires, one referred to teachers of children with autism, and the second to their parents.
